

ACTIVITY: "GROWING IN KINDNESS" CATERPILLAR

You will need:

Printout of pages 1-6 on cardstock

Scissors

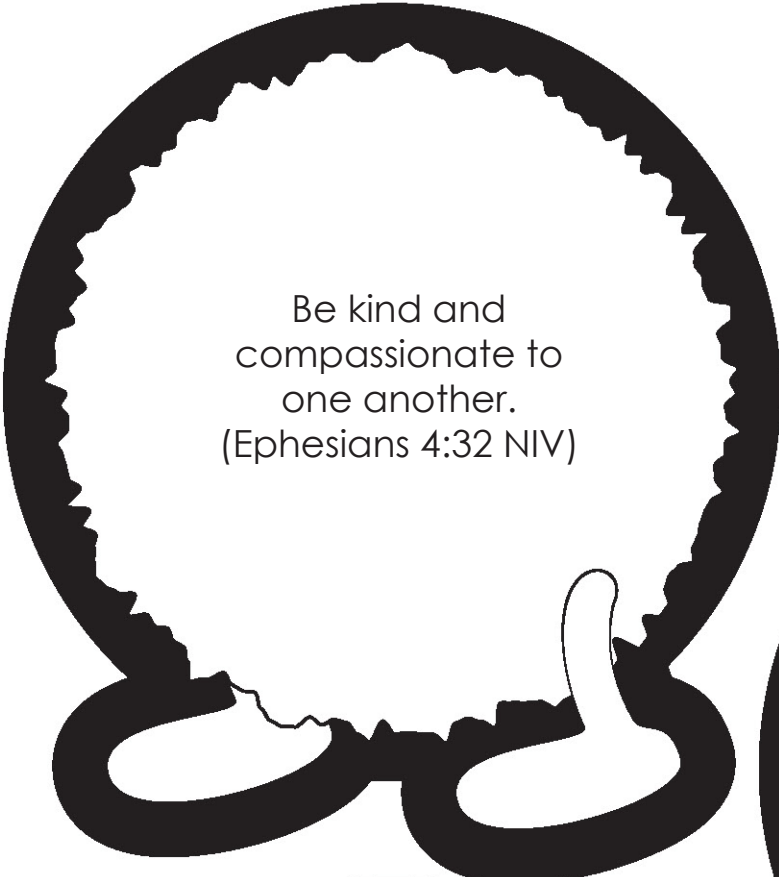

Scotch tape

You can make a project of looking for ways to grow in kindness every day. Color the caterpillar and cut it out. Follow the instructions below to create your own "Growing in Kindness" caterpillar, then put it on your wall. Each time you do something kind, write what your act of kindness was on a circle of the caterpillar's body; for example, if you helped your little sister pick up her toys you can write, "Helped my sister clean up her toys." Then add that circle segment to your caterpillar; that way you can remember all the ways you showed kindness to others.

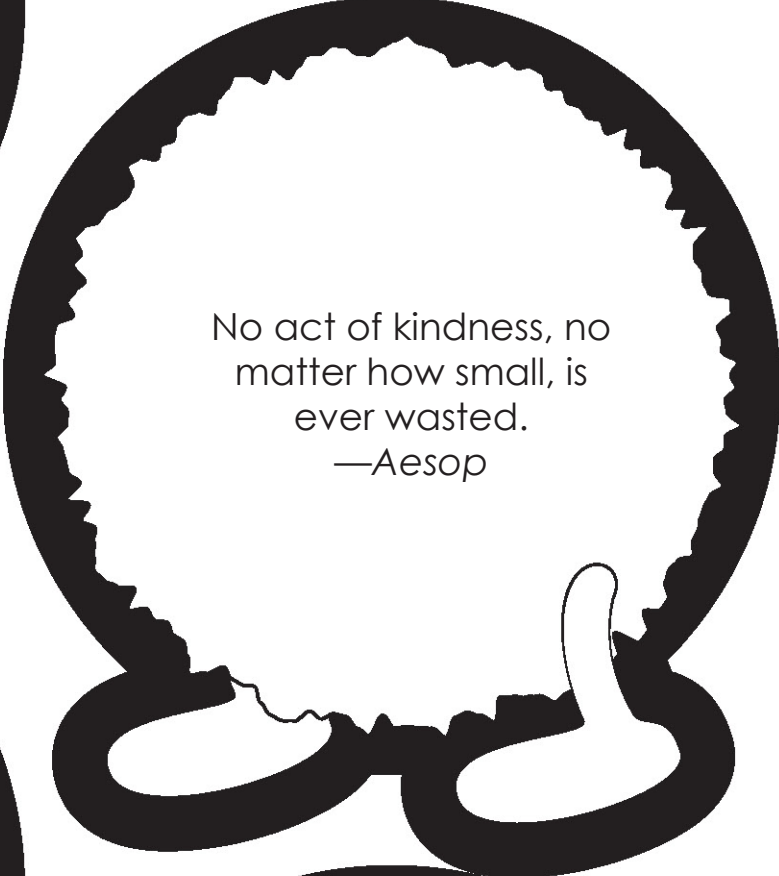

See how quickly you can get it to its full length, and if you run out of circles, print out more or create your own, so your kindness caterpillar can keep growing.

Have fun as you grow in kindness!
