

My Happy Sunbeam

You're My little sunbeam, shining all around,
Making others smile when they're feeling down.

Hello!
My name is Alicia.
What's yours?

You can cheer someone up if they're sad or lonely.
Share a hug and a smile. Be a sunbeam for Me.

When others see My love shining bright in you,
They will smile and cheer up. And you'll be happy too!
