

Training a Child in the Way He Should Live

Based on 1 Timothy 4:12, 2 Timothy 3:14 –15, and Proverbs 22:6.

During the period when Paul was held in a Roman prison, he wrote a letter to Timothy, a young man whom he had sent to strengthen the church in a town called Ephesus.

Timothy's mother, Eunice, and his grandmother, Lois, had taught him as a boy to read and understand the Scriptures. Paul wrote to Timothy acknowledging his family's loving influence on him and reminding him to "continue in the things which you have learned and have faith in, remembering who you learned from. From the time of your childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which have led you to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus" (2 Timothy 3:14–15, paraphrased).

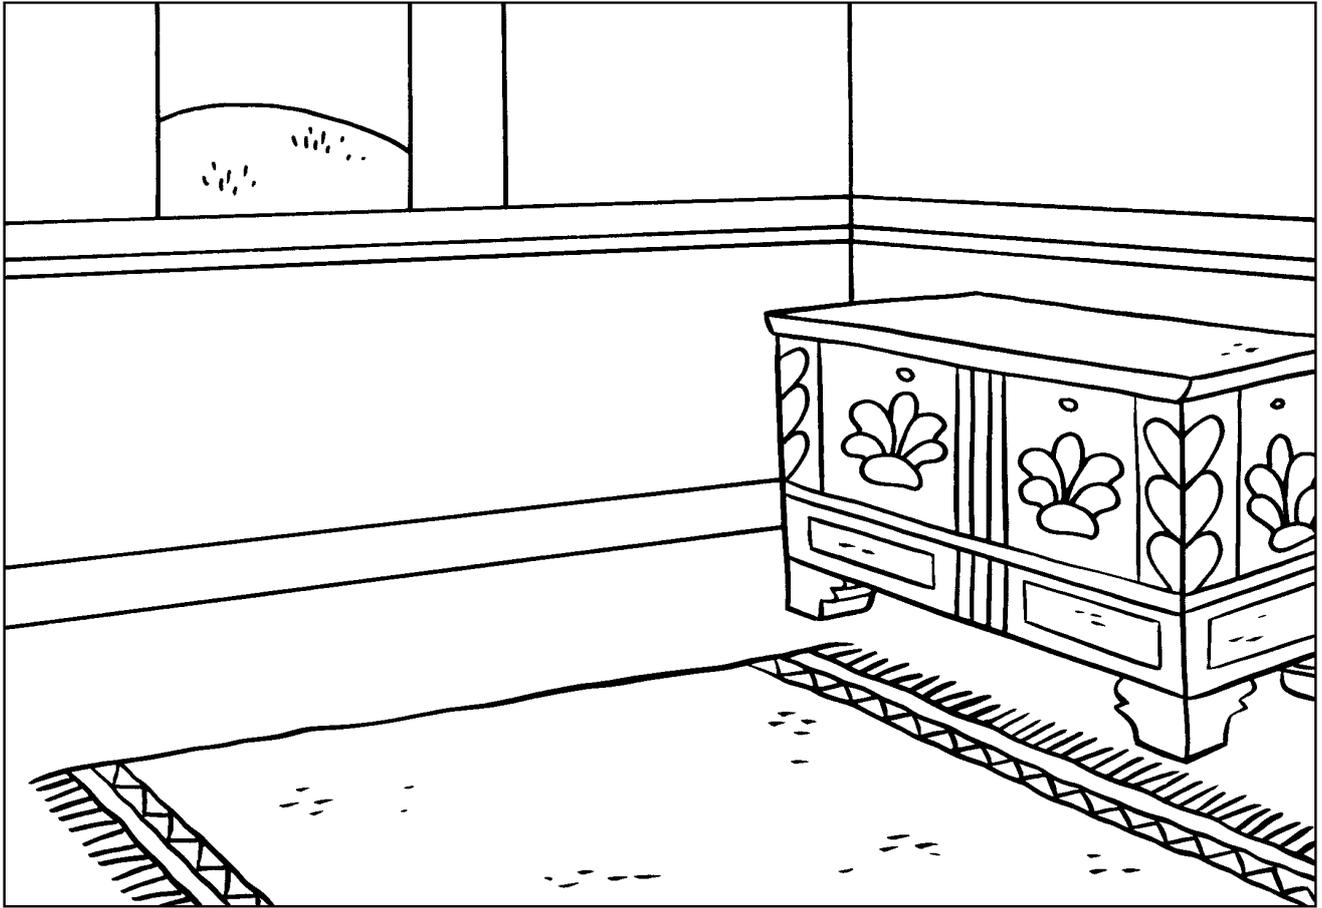

Even though the task ahead of Timothy wasn't an easy one, Paul commended and encouraged him: "Let no man look down on you for being a young man; but be an example in the way you speak and teach, in loving interactions, in spirit, in faith, and in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12, paraphrased).

frame parts

part to glue
on the back

Training a Child in the Way He Should Live

Based on 1 Timothy 4:12, 2 Timothy 3:14 –15, and Proverbs 22:6.

During the period when Paul was held in a Roman prison, he wrote a letter to Timothy, a young man whom he had sent to strengthen the church in a town called Ephesus.

Timothy's mother, Eunice, and his grandmother, Lois, had taught him as a boy to read and understand the Scriptures. Paul wrote to Timothy acknowledging his family's loving influence on him and reminding him to "continue in the things which you have learned and have faith in, remembering who you learned from. From the time of your childhood, you have known the Holy Scriptures, which have led you to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus" (2 Timothy 3:14–15, paraphrased).

Even though the task ahead of Timothy wasn't an easy one, Paul commended and encouraged him: "Let no man look down on you for being a young man; but be an example in the way you speak and teach, in loving interactions, in spirit, in faith, and in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12, paraphrased).

part to glue
on the back

frame parts